11:56:02 From jcroskell : Hi Tish - jill.croskell@skillsforcare.org.uk
11:59:48 From Richard Monk : Nursing Practitioners - how will this work for Home Care providers where no qualified nurse is on their staff?
12:00:15 From Richard Monk : Is there a mechanism where nurses from other sources could be used to supplement providers who don't have a nurse?
12:00:37 From christinerowberry : Matthew Tish is mentioning the qualified nurse element to this .
12:01:58 From Sarah Milford : Hi If I have a level 5, would I be able to do this qualification?
12:03:17 From Matthew Thomson : Hi everyone - I should have said we are starting with AP's in Nursing Home settings to build the practice needed to open it up a bit more for other social care settings
12:05:43 From Jenn-HP : Could the AP course include an assessing nurse?

12:05:50 From jcrossell : Hayley is this linked to the TNA pilot in Devon?

12:06:01 From Richard Monk : following up from Louisa's comments earlier. The letter issued to Care Home Managers regarding Primary Care Networks (PCN) is available at <http://cornwallpartnersincare.org/wp-content/uploads/2020/08/pcn-des-ch-managers.pdf> And the survey regarding PCN's and Directed Enhanced Service (DES) is available at <https://www.netigate.se/a/s.aspx?s=898728X233541258X82347>

12:07:01 From Haley Blake : Hi Jenn, yes nurses will be assessing nurses. We would like any nurse who is interested and has assessing knowledge to be part of the project, please contact me haley.blake@cornwallcare.org

12:07:34 From Haley Blake : Hi Jill, no this is independent with EPIC from Plymouth University

12:10:22 From Kirstie : An excellent session

12:11:19 From jcrossell : Thanks Hayley!

12:11:21 From Louisa Forbes : WE HAVE PLACES AVAILABLE TOMORROW ON THE RESTORE2 (managing deterioration and doing observations)
